

CARRY-ON ACCOMPANIED BAGGAGE

In force from the 1st April 2016

CARRY-ON BAGGAGE – DEFINITION

- Accompanied baggage is considered to be baggage following the passenger whose cargo he/she provides, any transshipment, unloading and custody during transport, exempting this Navigation from any responsibility in this regard.
- The transport of potentially dangerous material is not allowed.

MOTORSHIPS AND FERRIES ORDINARY SERVICE

- Any special baggage that exceeds the linear dimensions of normal baggage, but not the weight, may be transported provided that they do not cause obstruction to the service compatibly with the spaces available on board and at the sole discretion of the Captain.
- The transit of bicycles, tandems or bicycles with trailers, on ferryboats, when these carry out the service of transporting vehicles by connecting the boarding piers vehicles of two ports of call, are not considered luggage, but vehicles and taxed accordingly.
- The boarding of bicycles is conditioned by the type of motorship and by the incoming traffic. The Captain can limit the number of bicycles to embark in case their transport would compromise the service.
- Scooters and pedal-assisted electric bicycles are considered bicycles.

HYDROFOILS AND CATAMARANS SPEED SERVICE

- Accompanied luggage, with a major side greater than 0.60 m, bicycles and goods in general are not allowed to be transported on hydrofoils and catamarans.
